'We drew inspiration from the surrounding architecture,' says Adri van Zyl, design director at interior design studio Atelier, of the recently opened Work Shop New Town in Joburg that she and colleague Vincent Clery designed. 'By playing with the scale of the arches we created a sense of grandeur and drama.' The 1 200-square-metre space, former 1910 potato sheds, will now be used as a retail platform for local designers. ■ Atelier ☎ 071 610 8810
