The Kimmy & Bear Spaces sibling trio consists of Emily Bernadinehout, Cheska Stark and Alex Royston. Together, they form an interior design team that focuses on family spaces - from nurseries to playrooms, from art rooms and family gathering areas to lounges and bedrooms. They believe that how one feels in a room is of utmost importance, and what one does in a space is as important as what the space looks like. Their aim, through design, is to make the ordinary extraordinary as they redefine family spaces in the home.
